MATANZA, "Matador" Jarno Ahonen, 2018-10-13 "It's a dream, a Dream Book!" "I saw a dream, and the dream was unbelievably real. Like a movie clip, crystal clear 4D scene, quality of the reality, in the most perfect day at La Mata Beach, walking on the waterline... And then the action started. 6 months from the night I saw the dream, I was walking on the beach, exactly in the same spot as in the book, and I realized... It's the start of a new book. The first chapter in the book is a lucid dream, precisely." "I apologize that the book is so full of action. Chapter by chapter advancing story with full speed ahead, but it is a movie kind action book. When I wrote it I saw it all as a movie on my mind. What happened in the book surprised me over and over again, made me laugh, even exhausted. I saw movie scenes being created in the real time on my mind, one clip shot at the time, stunt by stunt, on a large imaginary theater screen. This book is a storytelling in which the reader can jump in, experiencing in the characters role. It's a play of the main character's role, written in a way that the reader can assimilate with him, in imagination. It's a story of a horrific terrorist attack at the beach, heroic deeds by the one, a bystander, confronting the attackers. Full action filled manhunt by the "terrorists", with seemingly unlimited resources, and the police, all security branches deployed. It seems that everybody is chasing him. But for the public, the most wanted man, it's all a different thing... It's a breathtaking survival story, "Rocky Run", hardcore action taking place, deadly dangers... with unseen speed of written storytelling. But it is also one of a kind of a love story... "I Love It!"

The Archaeology of Roman Portugal in its Western Mediterranean Context Tesse D. Stek, André Carneiro, 2022-07-31 The Archaeology of Roman Portugal aims to contribute to the wider debate on Roman imperialism and expansionism, by bringing to the fore a much-underrepresented area of the Roman empire, at least in English-language scholarship: its westernmost edge in modern day Portugal. Highlighting the perspective from Roman Portugal will contribute to our understanding of the Roman empire, because it presents both an extraordinary landscape in the sense of economic opportunities (ocean resources, marble and metal mining) and settlement history. The volume aims to present new data and insights from both archaeology and ancient history, and to discuss their significance for our understanding of Roman expansion and imperialism. A key goal of the volume is to discuss how the Portuguese panorama compares to other areas of the Iberian peninsula. An explicit goal of the volume is to better integrate Portuguese scholarship in the academic debate on the Mediterranean Roman world, and to contextualize it firmly in the wider Iberian and Western Mediterranean context. Therefore, chapters are produced by internationally diverse scholars in archaeology and ancient history from Portugal, Spain, Germany, the UK, the US, the Netherlands, Belgium, and Italy. With a view to assess the potential of integrating best practices in archaeological approaches and methodology, different national and disciplinary research traditions and historical frameworks will be explicitly discussed.
